

Guiding Document

Terms for the Submission of Information: The Editorial Team was set up in response to create resources for the general public working from home or in isolation in response to the Government guidelines for the coronavirus pandemic. The terms of reference are: Membership: Accredited therapists Douglas Sharp: Active Mind Coaching & Therapy; Hazel McMahon: Accredited Register Cosca, CRM Consultant and Supervisor; HCPC Counselling Psychologist Katie Hendrick; Psychiatrist; Meeting of Editorial Team: on- line contact will be maintained during this project development as is required. Website editor: all members.

Functions:

- Developing a process for the screening of high quality mental health materials and resources (text, images or other) to the dedicated 'Supports from a Distance' and 'arts and mental wellbeing' sections.
- Acting as the external product check for written and non-text based resources
- Acting to manage the number of submissions per theme/category
- Sourcing high quality materials independently as per guidelines
- Adhering to the ethical principles of the clinical professional body

Copyright

All original work will be referenced to the author/creator in line with copyright guidelines. Any work requiring refreshing will be done only by the original author. Downloaded materials are for personal use only and must be saved with the name of the copyright holder. The accreditation of original work must be by the author and organisation as well as the website resource/URL. This is a reasonable standard of practice. Please note that original work is automatically copyrighted.

Disclaimer

All materials are for personal use only and provided in good faith. See full disclaimer on hendrickps.com